Ignorance is what it has to be, otherwise you would not think differently
You don't have all the pieces. That's why your picture is crooked!

| E5 | | Bb5 | A5 G5 F#5 |

| E5 | | Bb5 | A5 G5 F#5 |
Throughout history, humanity came up with patterns evolutionarily
That guide our thinking unwillingly, to make sense of the world. So if we disagree
We jump to conclusions that leave only 3 Possibilities:

Stupidity is what it has to be, otherwise you would not think differently!
So you have all the pieces, but to put 'em together you're too stupid!

| E5maj7 | E5b | E5maj7 | Bb A5 G-F# | E5
You must be dumb!

| E5 | | | | (2x)

Chorus:

E5
In our humanity we cannot clearly see. We're caught in the rails that guide our indecency.
In our humanity we cannot clearly see. Caught in the rails that guide our idiocracy!

twelvethousand Years...

...of living together, it doesn't get any easier with numbers larger than life.
I'm try'ng to explain why you're different from me. Isn't it the same world we see?
So if you have all the pieces and you are not stupid, that leaves me with only one last possibility:

Animosity is what it has to be, otherwise you would not think differently!

| E5 | G5 | A5 | G5 | Bb5 | Bb A5 G5 | Bb A5 G5 | Bb A5 G5 | E5
So you see all the Pieces clearly, but you misfit them purposely... ...because you're evil!
